

Senate Resolution 1142

By: Senator Adelman of the 42nd

A RESOLUTION

1 Commending Ms. Susan Bundschu on her 29 years of teaching in Decatur city schools; and 2 for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, for more than a quarter century, Ms. Susan Bundschu has been touching lives
4 as a Title I teacher in Decatur city schools; and

5 WHEREAS, she began her career with the school system in 1977 when she accepted a 6 position in the newly created Title I Program, and since that time she has taught children in 7 grades one through five at every public elementary school in Decatur; and

8 WHEREAS, over the years, Ms. Bundschu, currently a teacher at Clairemont Elementary
9 School, has devoted her tremendous teaching talents to assisting and encouraging students 10 in reading, writing, and mathematics, tirelessly striving to serve the learning needs of each 11 and every one of her students; and

12 WHEREAS, in 1998, she was trained in the Reading Recovery Program, which she considers 13 to be instrumental to the successful reading and writing instruction of first grade students; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, her devotion to her pupils and commitment to academic excellence have earned 16 her the respect of students, colleagues, and parents; and

17 WHEREAS, considering that nothing is more important to Georgia's future than the 18 education of its children, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this body pay tribute to the 19 outstanding accomplishments of this extraordinary teacher.

1 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
2 join in commending Ms. Susan Bundschu on her 29 exceptional years of teaching at Decatur
3 city schools and in thanking her for her many contributions to education in Georgia.
4 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 5 to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to Ms. Susan Bundschu.
